Guidelines for the standard beneficiaries (pillar 3b)

The policyholder alone determines who is to benefit, i.e. who is entitled to receive the agreed insurance benefits, in particular in the event of the death of the insured person. He may designate one or several beneficiary(ies), institutions, etc. and may change the designation at any time provided he has not designated the beneficiary(ies) irrevocably in writing.

If no other declaration of the policyholder is made, the following standard beneficiaries shall apply:

For an insurance on 1 life (one insured person)

The insurance exists in favour of the policyholder,
in default thereof, in favour of his spouse or his registered partner,
in default thereof, in favour of his children,
in default thereof, in favour of the heirs of the policyholder.

For an insurance on 2 lives (two insured persons)

- for "Life Annuity" Insurances:

The insurance exists in the case of survival in favour of the policyholder,
in the case of death in favour of the surviving insured person,
in default thereof, in favour of his spouse or his registered partner,
in default thereof, in favour of the children of the policyholder,
in default thereof, in favour of the heirs of the policyholder.

- for "Combined Endowment" Insurances and "Insurances payable at Death"

The insurance exists in the case of survival in favour of the policyholder,
in the case of death in favour of the surviving insured person,
in default thereof, in favour of the children of the two insured persons, in default thereof, in favour of the heirs of the two insured persons.
